Ellis & Co. SOLICITORS

Announcing our next 'Chester Deo Gratias Choir' concert on Saturday November 28th at All Saints Church. It's rather a special one, as we're privileged to have Jonathan Veira as our guest. Jonathan is a super bass-baritone of international fame - he's sung in most of the opera houses in the world, sung on TV, made a number of CDs and he's just published his second book.

He's also very funny - a great entertainer. Our choir will be singing some things on their own, Jonathan will join them in some items as a soloist and he will do quite a lot on his own. His repertoire is varied - e.g. songs from shows, operas [he particularly likes the 'comic' roles], as well as some Christian and other 'classic' songs, though I don't yet know what he'll actually sing at this concert. It will be good, whatever he chooses to do.

He has a website which you might like to check out - it's www.jonathanveira.com. On this you can hear him sing, listen to interviews - e.g. one with Aled Jones outside the Royal Albert Hall before a BBC 'Songs of Praise', and generally get a flavour of the man. He's lovely!

Do come if you can. Tickets are available as per the information on the flyer or directly from me.

Blessings
Vicki

THE BIG SLEEP OUT!

Are there any folk out there who would like to join up with the All Saints team to 'sleep out' this year?

In order to maximise the effectiveness of this event in raising much needed money, it would be good if you had a source of sponsorship outside of All Saints .
If you can't sleep out, please do sponsor the team over the next few weeks.

Thank you
Vicki
