NOTICES

SUNDAY 8TH JANUARY 2017

Good morning! Welcome to All Saints and thank you for joining us to worship Almighty God. This morning we start our new series "The Word at Work - 1. True Conversion". Our reading today is 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10 and our sermon will be preached by John Kirkland. Please do stay for refreshments after the service.

Church Weekend

Now that you all have your new diaries and calendars, please do put the dates of the Church Weekend Away into them, if you haven't already done so!

November 17-19th this year and October 12-14th 2018!

Do make a resolution to come and join us!

Vicki

Next Sunday's Services

9.00am - Holy Communion
10.45am - Morning Praise
6.00pm - Franks

Sunday
22nd January
4-6pm

About Us

We don't take a collection during the service, but giving boxes are available at the entrances.

Song sheets (including large print) are available from welcomers. Please ask.

We have a hearing loop system, please switch your hearing aid to the T position.

Our music group leads a time of worship before the 10.45am service. The words are displayed on the screen so please feel free to join in the singing.

Crèche facilities for the under-3s are in Sparrow room in the Church Centre, where the service is relayed onto a TV screen. Children can be taken to it at any time.

Everyone working with children, young people and vulnerable adults at All Saints is DBS (formerly CRB) checked.

Long Awaited Café Re-opening

Many people are asking when the café will reopen, which is great that people are keen to come, but we can only open if we have enough volunteers. I've met lots of lovely people over the last few weeks (apologies if I forget your names!) and have a good list of volunteers but we still need more. Pam Male is kindly hosting a 'getting to know you' evening this Monday, 9th January at 7.30 pm at 87 Woodlands Drive. This is just an opportunity for those who have already volunteered and those who are maybe interested to come and meet together and discuss how they can be involved, and also importantly to pray. I want us to think outside the box, so as I look at the what is required to run the café, as not only a place to serve people food but a space where people will find a listening ear if they need it, I see the need for many different roles.

We need those who will cook food, or serve and clear away, or just sit and have coffee and listen to people who need to talk and I also wondered if there are any wonderful strong morning people out there who could commit to coming every Monday morning at 7.30am just to help set up tables etc for the week and others who could come at the end of the week and help pack away?

So please do come along on Monday if only for the coffee and cake! If you can't make the meeting, I will be in church on Sunday morning or you can contact the church office to arrange meeting up at another time.

The WORD at work
1 Thessalonians

THANK YOU!

On our Ruby Wedding Anniversary, we were blessed by the delivery of a beautiful card, (a GH Designer Special), filled with many names, of friends wishing us well and an exquisite garden trough filled with early Spring flowers. We thank our All Saints Family for such a heart warming contribution to the happiness of our day.

Jane and Reg with love.
